SAINT LOUIS

Act Justly, Love Mercy, and Walk Humbly with God.

G I V E

Dear Restore St. Louis Partners,

Thank you for your prayers and financial support. By God's grace, for over 25 years the ministries of Restore St. Louis under the oversight of New City Fellowship have been blessing families in St. Louis. Thank you for all of you who have volunteered, prayed and given towards this work.

We would appreciate if you would consider beginning, continuing or growing your partnership with us.

How?

Please pray. We are calling out to the Lord to see 100 people come to Christ in 2019 through the ministries of Restore. Several of us began praying this at the end of 2018 and we have already seen the Lord answer our prayers!

Please participate. We need more volunteers. I would be glad to send you a list of 25 ways that you can volunteer with Restore St. Louis. It includes everything from tutoring a child, to writing letters to an inmate, to building a wheelchair ramp.

Please give. We need $300,000 in new and additional giving in 2019 to carry on the work that God has called us to. Would you consider partnering with us financially as a monthly donor, with a one-time donation, or a gift of stock?

Thank you for partnering with Restore St. Louis. We pray God's richest blessings on you this year.

Much grace,

Andrew Stern

Inside Out Prison Ministry

Restore St. Louis is a group of seven ministries birthed and under the oversight of New City Fellowship Church. Each of the seven ministries are led by their own boards.

Vision

The vision of Restore St. Louis is to see the Church of St. Louis express the love of Christ by meeting needs of the community, especially the poor, the widow, the fatherless, the imprisoned, the immigrant and the refugee.

Mission

The mission of Restore St. Louis is to disciple and equip the Church to do Spirit-led deeds of justice and mercy in St. Louis because we believe that Jesus has called the Church to display His glory by doing justice, loving mercy, and walking humbly with our God. By God's grace, we will accomplish this mission by recruiting, training, coaching, and unleashing disciples of Jesus to lead the Church in completing this work.

Firm Foundation serves 120 children from 53 families. Those children come from a dozen nations and speak 15 languages. During the school year, 160 volunteers provide 12,480 hours of tutoring. During the summer, Firm Foundation hosts an intensive six-week Summer Enrichment Program that provides an all-day educational camp.

Vision

Firm Foundation envisions academically at-risk children and youth from our community serving more productively in our culture in part, because they have received academic assistance and have come to know the love of God through caring, mutually beneficial relationships facilitated by the Firm Foundation Tutoring Program.

Mission

Firm Foundation Tutoring, a Christ-centered academic assistance program, teams a diverse group of volunteer tutors with at-risk children and youth in after-school tutoring and summer enrichment programs.

The Freedom School serves 97 students from 59 families who come from diverse economic, racial, and religious backgrounds. The Board, Administration, Staff and Volunteers aim to share the love of God with these students so that they might become disciples of Christ who become responsible servant leaders who value and care for others.

Vision

The Freedom School welcomes children from all walks of life and frees their minds, hearts, and hands from the bonds of sin to serve one another and the oppressed around the world.

Mission

The Freedom School provides a safe and nurturing learning community where children of different beliefs, races, ethnicities, and economic circumstances are reconciled to God and to one another by experiencing forgiveness by grace through faith in Jesus Christ. They are equipped by our knowledgeable and caring staff, using research based curriculum, to reach their unique potential as restored image bearers and servant leaders of God who steward His creation and proclaim His kingdom of righteousness through practical deeds of justice and mercy to those in their school, community and the world.

The Lord watches over the foreigner and sustains the fatherless and the widow, but he frustrates the ways of the wicked.

Psalms 146:9

Through Harambee Youth Training Corporation, 88 youth provided $216,000 worth of free tuckpointing to low-income homeowners in the City of St. Louis in the last year. While working, the youth hear the Good News of the Gospel and see its' practical implications as they serve widow, seniors and disabled individuals in the City.

Vision

Harambee Youth Training Corporation targets at-risk youth to transform and encourage them with the hope of the gospel of Jesus Christ and to equip and empower them to know and experience the value and dignity of work by training and mentoring in a biblically-based, work-ethic environment.

Mission

Harambee Youth Training Corporation is committed to training youth in the St. Louis area by providing an opportunity for them to gain both personal character development and the necessary work experience to succeed in a work environment. In order to accomplish this, Harambee seeks to build partnerships that connect resources and create relationships with individuals, communities, businesses, churches and government agencies. All of this is to be done in the context of serving the elderly, widows, immigrants, single-parent households and the poor.

Health Connection serves 33 families speaking seven languages coming from 10 countries. Volunteers include doctors, nurses, medical and nursing students and other individuals. A primary goal is to get those with no health care connected to a primary care physician who can provide consistent, on-going healthcare.

Vision

Health Connection's vision is to see God's love manifested by the body of Christ to the most vulnerable including the fatherless, widow, refugee, immigrant and poor by building caring relationships and empowering them to stay healthy and to receive quality healthcare.

Mission

We fulfill our vision by engaging volunteers to become health advocates via home visits and case management; connect the vulnerable with primary care providers who can provide basic health services and increase their health literacy.

InsideOUT Prison Ministry has three weekly classes the St. Louis County Jail in Clayton. Two men are currently being trained as pastors in the jail. These pastors are providing additional church services and sharing the Gospel on a daily basis. Volunteers take part in services in the jail as well as connecting through letter-writing.

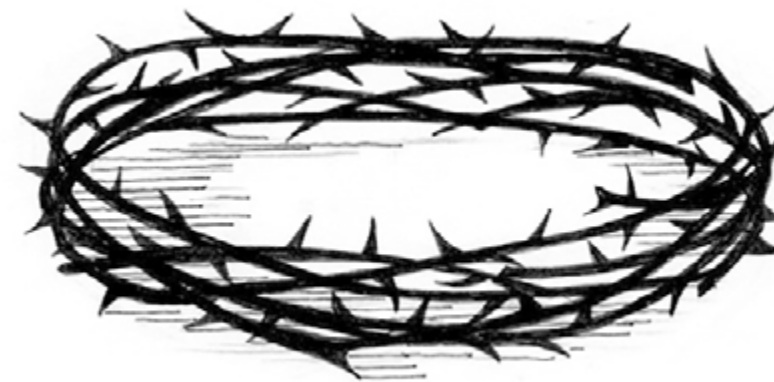

Vision

InsideOUT binds the hearts of the church and the prisoner, in the love of Jesus Christ, to provide hope and healing, and to equip their hearts for ministry.

Mission

InsideOUT provides hope and healing to prisoners and returning citizens through jail and prison outreach, discipleship and holistic care of these men and women, and relationship building be-

- 3 weekly classes at St. Louis County Jail
- Volunteers follow-up with 1:1 mentoring after inmates are released
- 300 individuals served per year
- InsideOUT provides job and housing connections for former inmates

Umetulisha serves 12 St. Louis ministries by providing 250,000 meals and snacks for their participants. About 5,000 individuals are served annually.

Vision

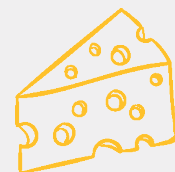

The vision of Umetulisha is to further the Kingdom of God by showing Christ's love through the actions of his Body in meeting the nutritional needs of the disadvantaged and suffering.

Mission

Umetulisha seeks to provide opportunities for the Church to share their food with the hungry by partnering with various ministries of Restore St. Louis. Volunteers are mobilized to manifest the provisional love of Christ by preparing and serving healthy meals and snacks.

He that hath a bountiful eye shall be blessed; for he giveth of his bread to the poor.

Proverbs 22:9

Give generously to him and do so without a grudging heart; then because of this the Lord your God will bless you in all your work and in everything you put your hand to.

Deuteronomy 15:10

Through everything from wheelchair ramps to tax returns, Workday equips volunteers to love the St. Louis community. 1,000 out-of-town and 1,000 in-town volunteers serve with Workday annually putting in 20,000 hours of service.

the WORKDAY
building relationships ■ rebuilding saint louis

Vision

Workday seeks to manifest the love of Christ in places labeled “blighted” and to people deemed “undesirable” in our city. We believe people from different racial, ethnic, geographic and socioeconomic backgrounds benefit from walking together. God’s Spirit invites us into the broken hurting places of our city, so we all experience the healing, reconciling, transformative power of Jesus Christ’s love.

Mission

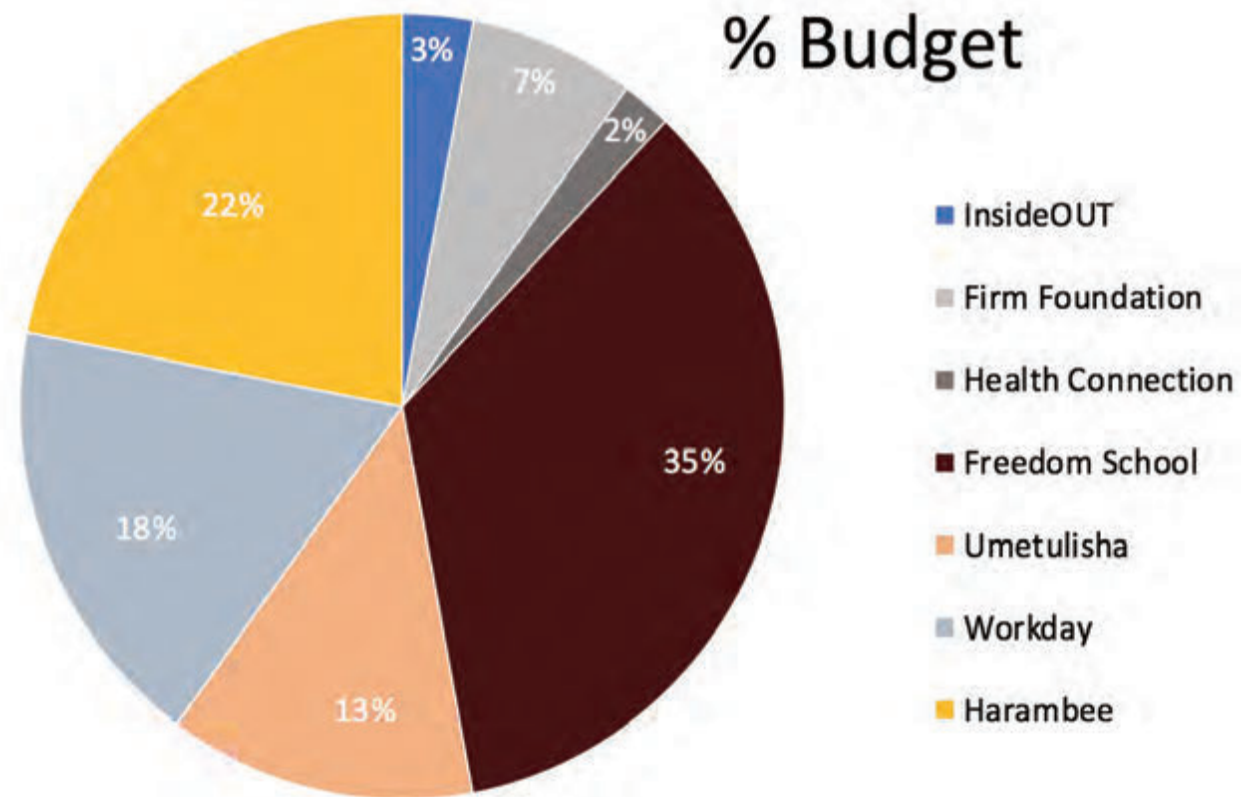

Workday equips, encourages and engages volunteers in Spirit-led deeds of justice and mercy. Workday gathers willing volunteers from local churches, colleges, small businesses and every place in between to provide basic home repairs and rich relationship for the poor and vulnerable.

- 40 Seniors participate in the Just Older Youth (JOY) monthly gatherings
- 16 Summer college interns
- 2000 Volunteers
- 345 free tax returns prepared by Tax Team
- 125 Families served through everything from lawn mowing to English classes

2 Corinthians 9:6-8

Now this I say, he who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each one must do just as he has purposed in his heart, not grudgingly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that always having all sufficiency in everything, you may have an abundance for every good deed.
